

15 years LIVING THE DREAM

Cynthia Schonhardt | Consultant | Inspired By Lite

Cynthia joined the Party 15 years ago when PartyLite first landed in Australia and has never looked back!

What is it that you love about PartyLite?

It's so hard to put into words, 15 years is such a long time that it is a part of your life. Candles and fragrance have become part of my daily routine, the Consultants that I know and love, have become part of my "family". PartyLite, in one form or another surrounds me every day, and I hope it will continue to do so for many more years.

Why did you decide to join 15 years ago?

In February 2002, I answered a small advert that I saw in the paper saying "Do you love candles?" and I was intrigued. I met Cinnamon for the first time and learned about this wonderful company that was coming to Australia soon... she gave me a Lavender tealight to take home with me, and that single tealight, with its beautiful fragrance held my interest until my Kit arrived in April. With that tealight in my hand, I knew that this would be the beginning of something special... I was hooked.

What opportunities have you received through PartyLite?

Once I got started, my Party schedule grew and I soon realised that I could have much more than what I had achieved. I started sharing the opportunity, grew my team and became a Leader. My income grew, but more importantly my self esteem and confidence grew. I became very empowered, knowing that there was support and training to help me grow. Best of all I loved being "the candle lady" and getting out of the house, meeting lovely people that I could share these candles and business with.

I have been on 3 overseas trips, Tahiti, Thailand and Hawaii – all thanks to PartyLite! I'd never been outside Australia before that, so my sense of achievement was at its highest – what a "high"! I have so many wonderful memories from the past 15 years, but I think that the excitement of boarding that international flight for the first time is hard to beat.

PartyLite has given me the best gift that anything could give... Freedom to choose my hours, time to devote to my family and beautiful grandchildren and money to spend on them. But most of all it's made me grow, become confident, and given me lifelong friends.

Why wouldn't anyone want to be a PartyLite Consultant – it's the only business I know that you can tailor to your own needs, and earn as much as you want.

Never underestimate to power of the gift of a single tealight.

Our annual Conference is coming up – what do you love about PartyLite events like this?

Conference is like Christmas to me, and those that know me, know that I'm a Christmas nut! Conference gives me my first glimpse of the new Christmas product coming, and great decorating ideas for my displays for Parties and for my home. I love seeing people get the recognition that they deserve, but the Butterfly Ceremony is an absolute highlight for me, watching all the proud new Leaders and their Uplines on stage – the moving ceremony is something that should motivate everyone to want to be a Leader.

There are such wonderful motivational speakers, Consultants stories, meeting new people, catching up with old friends, networking, sharing, and exceptional training... I wouldn't miss it! It's a time for us, as Consultants, to leave family and other commitments behind for a couple of days and be surrounded by positive, like-minded people...and there's always a couple of drinks to be had!

My Signature Scent

Santorini Sea Blossom and White Ambrosia is my favourite Signature fragrance combination. it's the fragrance of an Island holiday to me, it reminds me of Tahiti.
